

IEP Data Management Showcase

August 13th 2019, 9:00-3:00

California Natural Resources Building Auditorium (1416 9th St., Sacramento)

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| 8:30-9:00 | Registration and Check-In |
| 9:00-9:15 | Session I: Opening the Door to Data FAIRness , Vanessa Tobias
What it means for data to be “open” and why you would want to join the open data movement. |
| 9:15-10:00 | Session II: Data Management: Easier than herding cats (almost) , Rosemary Hartman
Overview of Data Management Plans, why they are important, and best practices in writing data management plans, with examples! |
| 10:00-10:25 | Session III: QA; It’s all about Quality , Rachel Pisor and JohnFranco Saraceno
Discuss the major components of QA, its benefits, and how it can help. |
| 10:25-10:40 | Break |
| 10:40-11:35 | Session IV: Metadata Magic , Catarina Pien and Jenna Rinde
Why metadata is important, what counts as metadata, how to create metadata documents, and a discussion of IEP’s proposed metadata standard. |
| 11:35-12:00 | Session V: Making It Big With Data Publishing , Melinda Baerwald
Overview of digital object identifiers (DOIs), how are they helpful in sharing open data, and IEP’s recommended data repository (Environmental Data Initiative) |
| 12:00-1:00 | Lunch: Area Restaurants |
| 1:00-3pm | Session VI (optional): Working session to assist workshop attendees with their metadata, Data Management Plans, Quality Assurance, and EDI submissions. Bring your laptops and/or drafts of any documents you want help on! |